

HEALTHIT: Certificate Training Program

Offered by: Jefferson Community College

ABOUT THE PROGRAM-

Health Information Technology is a growing field where qualified technicians create, install, and maintain electronic health records (EHRs). There is currently a local and national demand for workers with this skill.

TUITION

$650 per person

WHEN

Tuesdays, September 6, 2016 - January 17, 2017

5:30 p.m. - 9:30 p.m.

JCC, 1220 Coffeen St., Watertown

Extended Learning Center, E-118

For more information:

JCC Community Service Coordinator

Todd Parody

315-786-2385

tparody@sunyjefferson.edu

www.sunyjefferson.edu

"The highly trained and specialized personnel developed through these programs will play a critical role in supporting physicians nationwide as they transition to EHRs."

*- David Blumenthal, M.D., M.P.P.,
National Coordinator for Health
Information Technology, 2009-2011*

"Hands-on, real-life training."

*- Ann M. DuMond, Certified Health
IT Manager and former HIT student*

Have Questions?

Attend our

Information Session:

Wednesday, June 22nd

4:00-6:00 p.m.

Extended Learning Center,

E-130

