Part 4 – Resume & Cover Letter

Please submit a copy of your resume and cover letter, saved as either a PDF or Word document. Include employment experience, unpaid leadership/volunteer experience, relevant skills for the position, and why you would like to be a member of the Residence Life team.

Part 5 – Experience

Please respond to the following three (3) questions in a separate document, saved as either a PDF or Word document. Please place your name on the top of each page, in case the pages are separated when they are reviewed. There is no length requirement for the questions; however, we have provided some guidance on length. Please also note that college-level writing is expected. All responses should be double spaced, 12-point Times New Roman font, and one-inch margins.

1. The Resident Assistant position limits outside commitments, unrelated to coursework, to no more than 15 hours per week. This includes no more than 10 hours of other paid jobs or self-employment. If you are hired as an RA, what outside time commitments, either on or off campus, are you currently committed too or anticipate during the 2025 academic year. Create a bullet list, such as this:

- Philosophy Club president – 2 hours/week Intramural basketball – 2 hours/week (Spring only)
- Symphony rehearsal - 2 hours/week Babysit in Watertown – 3 hours/week

*Please remember if hired for the position, this position is the priority. *

2. RAs are responsible for learning about and completing several important administrative processes accurately and on time. In 2-3 pages tell us about a time when you worked on a large project or in a work environment that involved lots of details, factors, responsibilities, and/or deadlines. How did you stay organized? What did you learn? How can you apply this understanding to managing tasks and processes that you will face with the RA position?

3. Ra's should be well versed in communication. In 1-2 pages please explain the importance of communication among team members, staff, and residents.

Part 6 – References

Please provide contact information for two references, meeting the criteria listed below. The selection committee may contact references in order to inform hiring decisions. Note: It is good practice to ask permission of your references before you list them; doing so also allows your references the notice needed to prepare to answer questions about you in relation to the Resident Assistant position should they be contacted. Reference Letters included in the application are strongly encouraged.

Types of references required:

- One reference from a current or prior supervisor, advisor, professor, coach, teacher, mentor, or spiritual guide, e.g., minister, rabbi, etc.
- One reference from a peer who has observed your performance firsthand and will comment openly and honestly about your capabilities. Examples: a coworker, teammate, club member, etc.

References may not be from an immediate family member.*
